Mr. William J. Casey
Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D. C. 20505

Dear Mr. Casey:

Enclosed are the "Proceedings" for the Twenty-Third International Affairs Symposium conducted by the School of International Studies at the United States Army John F. Kennedy Special Warfare Center. Such Symposia are held twice annually as the culminating exercise of the Center's Foreign Area Officer (FAO) Course. Complete background information on these Symposia is contained in Appendix A to the enclosed booklet.

The Symposium addressed the theme, "The Utility and Future of Security Alliances." Following the Keynote Address by Professor George Quester, Chairman, Department of Government and Politics, University of Maryland, five workshops convened to discuss the specific issues outlined by the Symposium. These issues were: Alliances in the Context of Strategies; The Structure of Alliances; Domestic Factors in the Alliance Process; Current Alternatives to the Alliance Theme; and The Future of the Alliance System. The workshops produced some excellent, thought-provoking ideas, conclusions and recommendations. The "Proceedings" are provided to share the efforts of this Symposium with individuals and agencies dealing in national security affairs.

We hope these "Proceedings" will be of interest and use to you.

Respectfully,

SIGNED

David L. Pemberton
Colonel, Infantry
Acting Commandant
